B. J. Music Ed. (1998) 15:3, 327–332 Copyright © 1998 Cambridge University Press

Index

A-level music, marking of, 256 ability: singing, views of own, 313; tests for, 267–8; theories of, 268; types of, related to potential instrumental competence, 267–8, 269; views of extent of, 152, 172, 179, 258
abstraction, levels of, 256–7 access issues, 71–81, 95, 269–70, 296
acoustics, 125–6; psychoacoustics, 129–30 acting, 312
Adair, Yvonne, 240, 242
Adams, Pauline, 221, 224
Adey, Christopher, 319–21
adolescence, physical aspects, 101–16
aesthetics, 216
Africa, 139–59 passim, 171–213 passim, 322–3
African music, 235, 237; contemporary styles in Nigeria, 182–9; cultural issues, 155–9, 164, 165–6; in education in Africa, 152–3, 171–9, 202–3, 205–6, 207, 208; in education outside Africa, 155, 167–8; influences on, 165; ownership/copyright issues, 156–7, 159; resources on, 211–13
African musicology, 202
Alcantara, Pedro de, 127–9
Alexander Technique, 127–9
Allen, Patrick, 219–21
amateur music, 218–19, 261; choirs, 314
amateurs/professionals: defining, 184; working together, 218–19
ambition, 41–3, 44, 66
Amoaku, Komla, 235, 237
analysis through composition, 124–5
anatomy, 128
Anderson, William, 149–50
aptitude, see ability arpeggios: function of practising, 6; ways of practising, 21
art teaching, 319
arts subjects in schools, 122–4, 318–19
assessment: of instrumental performance, 176, 178, 236; of musical development, 275–6; see also examinations
Aston, Peter, 32–3, 34
Atkinson, Elizabeth, 221–2
audiating, 147
aural skills, 250, 309–11, 314, 315n; see also transcription automatisation, 10

Bach, C. P. E., 11
Bamberger, Jeanne, 83
bamboo pipes, 242, 247; see also Pipers' Guild band music, 227
Barnard, Elizabeth, 240, 249
BBC, 248, 251
Beethoven, Ludwig van, 94
behavioural skills, 304, 305–6, 308, 311–14 beliefs: effects of, 47; teachers', 53–68; Zimbabwean traditional, 171–2 bells/drums as signals, 203, 205
Bhavan Centre, 272
Birtwistle, Harrison, 255, 262
Black Papers, 251
Blacking, John, 145, 152
Blocksidge, Kathleen, 240, 241, 242, 245, 247–8, 251 body: Alexander Technique, 127–9; experiencing music with, 237; movement styles in dance, 142, 203–4, 205–7; movements when performing music, 237
bodymind, 305–6, 311–12, 314n
Botswana, 191–200
Bow-Craft Guild, 241, 242, 243
boys: puberty and vocal development, 102–9, 115–16; see also gender issues
Brearley, Molly, 241, 246
Brown, John Hullah, 242

Cain, Tim, 221, 222–3
Canada, 51, 53, 57, 63–4, 67
Certificate of Education, 80

change, 189; in traditional music, 158, 178 Chapple, Stanley, 28
child-centred approach, 248, 251
Chinese music, 323
Chopin, Fryderyk, 10, 15
choral conducting, 303–14, 322
choral singing: effects, 313; and holistic approach to music in schools, 77–8; National Curriculum and, 100–1; repertoire, 313–14 Christianity, 157–8, 182–3
classical style, 124–5
Clay, Gordon, 318–19
collaborations between professional musicians and schools, 47, 271–85 Colour Music System, 251
communication and interpersonal skills, 304, 305–6, 308, 311–14
communication networks, 299–301
community/communities, 153, 161–2, 169, 171–2, 203–8 Community Music Limited, 272 community schools, 208 composing/composition and its teaching, 236; accessibility, 95; analysis through composition, 124–5; benefits, 299; gender and, 63–5, 67–8; and holistic approach to music in schools, 78–9, 80; MEUT and, 248–9; resources for, 295, 299–301; in Scotland, 295, 296–7; study of compositional strategies, 83–96; using computers, 83–96 computers: attitudes to, 95–6; gender issues concerning, 64–5, 68; study of compositional strategies using, 83–96 conducting: by children, 243; choral, 303–14; orchestral, 319–21 constructionist view of culture, 151
constructivism (Personal Construct Psychology), 38, 40 constructivist views of knowledge, 263
context, see cultural issues Cook, Nicholas, 124–5
copyright/ownership issues, 156–7, 159, 292
cultural issues, 155–9, 161–9, 201–2, 287–8, 323–4; in Ghana, 203–8; samba and, 291–4; in South Africa, 151–2; see also interculturalism and multiculturalism cultural studies, 324
Curwen, John, 30, 31
Curwen Method, New, 251
Czerny, Carl, 12, 22

dalaara, 203, 204–5, 206
Dalcroze Society, 241–2, 243
dance: African movement style, 142, 203–4, 205–7; European, 323; in Ghana, 142, 147n, 203–4, 205–7; movement in singing games and, 142, 147n; in schools, 319, 323
Dargie, David, 235, 237
Dartington International Summer School, 255–6, 258–9, 261
Davies, Henry Walford, 251
Dobbs, Jack, 243, 244, 246–7
drama teaching, 319 drums/bells as signals, 203, 205
Dunning report, 295
Dunsby, Jonathan, 126–7
Durrant, Colin, 236

ear, playing by, and learning, 175–6, 177–9, 267
electronic networks, 299–300
Ellis, Phil, 236–7
equal opportunity issues, 46, 47, 166, 169; see also gender issues error detection, and choral conducting, 306, 310
essays, models for, 318
eurhythmics, 241–2
European festivals, 323–4
Everitt, Anthony, 218–19, 261 examinations, 236; aural tests in, 309, 311, 315n; and education in Tanzania, 157; gender and results in, 52; in Ghana, 203; in jazz, 225; marking of, 256; statistics on entries and results, 52, 295, 297–8 exercises: for singing, 147, 313; technical, effects on learners, 269; see also under technique extemporisation, see improvisation extra-curricular work, and access issues/integration into curriculum, 71–81; see also visiting musicians

falsetto, 106, 107, 220
Feldberg, Emily, 221–2
feminism, 37–9; see also gender issues festivals, 323–4
fingering systems, piano, 10–19, 20, 21–2
Flowers, Herbie, 259, 261
Flynn, Doris, 247
Foxley, Simon, 272
freedom, samba project and feeling of, 290–1 Froebel Foundation, National, 241, 243, 245
funding for amateur music, 219, 261
Fyk, Janina, 129–30

Gahu (dance), 142, 147n
Gamble, Tom, 249
gamelan, 323
games, 139–47; for learning music, 223; see also play GCSE music, holistic approach and, 77, 78–9, 80
gender issues, 37–48, 51–68, 121–2; see also puberty and vocal development
Ghana, 158, 201, 202–8; study of singing in a singing game in, 139–47
Gilbert, Jean, 322, 323–4
girls: puberty and vocal development, 102–3, 112–16; see also gender issues
Glynne-Jones, Marjorie, 248
Gould, Doris, 248
Gould, Glenn, 10
Green, Lucy, 51, 53, 54, 55, 121–2

hand piano, see mbira
Helliwell, Gladys, 240
Hemsley, Thomas, 321–2
Hertrich, John, 318–19
Higher Still, 300
highlife music, 164, 183
holistic approaches to music education, 27–8, 71–81, 296
Hollis, Eric, 236
Horton, John, 249–50
Hosier, John, 248
Houghton, Winifred, 240, 242
Howard, John, 236
Huddersfield University, 309–10
hymn books, 261

improvisation: in classroom work, 31; in piano practice, 6–9, 20–1; vocal, 236; whether teachable, 177–9
Indian music, 323
Indonesian music, 323
infancy, 145–6
infant-directed music, 145, 146–7
INSET, 251; and MEUT, 244; teachers' views on in Botswana, 192–200 instrumental teaching/learning, 264–70; access issues, 269–70; benefits of, 268, 270; goals, 269–70; and holistic approach to music in schools, 79–80; and knowledge of music being studied, 267, 268–9; notation and, 176, 177–9, 267, 269; predictors of success, 268, 269; reasons for giving up, 267, 269; reasons for students choosing, 45; in a Zimabwean teachers' college, 175–9; see also individual instruments instruments, choice of, and gender issues, 43–5, 59, 66–7, 121 interculturalism, 152, 155–9, 168; see also multiculturalism interdisciplinary projects, 323–4 Internet, 299–300
interpersonal and communication skills, 304, 305–6, 308, 311–14
interpretation, see performance practice intonation: choral conducting and, 305–6, 310; developing in singing, 147, 249, 250; in a singing game, 139, 143–7; violin, 129–30; see also pitching intuition, 308
invention, see composing ISME (International Society for Music Education), 235–8

James, Florence, 240
James, Jamie, 126
James, Margaret, 242
Japanese music, 323
Jaques-Dalcroze, Emile, 241
jazz: and listening, 290; resources relating to, 225–7; teaching of in schools, 79–80
Jones, Peter, 318–19
juju, 183, 189

Kakube, 203, 204–5, 207, 208
Kamba, Maria, 122–4
Kelly, George, 38, 39, 40
Kenya, 157, 159
knowledge: needed for choral conducting, 303–8, 314; situated, 308; types of, 263–6, 307
Kodály, Zoltán, 30, 31, 248, 250, 251
Kratus, J., 83–4
Kullak, Adolf, 16–17, 22

language: and children's singing, 139–47; learning in other than first, 174, 202; music and, 139–40, 143–7; and vocal development, 139–41, 143–7
Lawrence, Evelyn, 241, 245
leadership, 312
learning, 135; bodymind aspects, 311–12; direct, 146, 150, 151, 158–9, 202, 207, 208; play and, 135; situated, 266; in traditional Ghanaian culture, 202, 208; in traditional Zimbabwean culture, 171–2, 176–7
Lewin, Olive, 149

listening: multiculturalism and, 287–8; samba project and, 289–90 literacy, musical, see notation
London Arts Board, 271–2, 284
Lougheed, Judith, 221, 223–4

MacGregor, Joanna, 258–9, 261
MacMillan, James, 300
McMillan, Margaret, 241
Maconie, Robin, 125–6
marimba, 175, 176–9
maturity: gender and, 63; vocal, see voice, development of mbira, 175–9
Mellers, Wilfrid, 317–18
Mendoza, Anna, 249
mental imagery and choral conducting, 306
MEUT (Musical Education of the Under-Twelves), 239–52; changed to 'Up to Thirteen', 244; closure, 244–5
Michael, Richard, 225, 227
Midi Files, Standard, 225, 226
Mills, Janet, 318–19
mind/body, see bodymind motivation, 5, 19–20, 269; of choral singers, 311–14; singing games and, 146 Mozart, Wolfgang Amadeus, 94, 124 multiculturalism, 151–2, 213–16, 288, 291–4; see also interculturalism
Munn report, 263, 295, 296
Murphy, William, 248
music: language and, 139–40, 143–7; meaning, 201, 266–7 (see also cultural issues); ownership/copyright issues, 156–7, 159, 292; participation in, 218–19, 261; 'proper'/'improper', 256, 258, 261–2; status as subject, 236, 258, 259–60, 261–2 music education: historical studies of, 5–22, 25–35, 239–52; holistic approaches, 71–81, 296; order of, 27, 28–9; philosophies of, 25–35, 245–51
music reading, see notation musical ability, see ability Musical Education of the Under-Twelves, see MEUT musicians, professional, see professional musicians musicianship, characteristics associated with, 67; see also ability musicology, African, 202

Nalden, Rosemary, 237
National Curriculum, 25, 35, 99–101, 263; and arts subjects, 123; assessment and, 275–6; collaborative projects and, 273–4, 275, 277, 278, 284; and holistic approaches/access issues, 71–5, 81; influences on, 32; resources relating to, 221–5, 323–4; singing and, 99–102, 109, 115–16, 220; and world music(s), 166, 169
Nepal, 192–3
networks, 299–301
Ngqoko, 235, 237
Nigeria, 181–9
Nketia, J. H. Kwabena, 152, 202
Norton, Christopher, 225–7
notation/music reading: and instrumental teaching/learning, 176, 177–9, 267, 269; MEUT and, 249, 250–1; place of learning in music education, 27, 29; systems, 165–6; see also sight-reading
Nursery School Association, 241, 243

Obiara (singing game), 139–47
OFSTED (Office for Standards in Education), 46, 318, 319
Orchestra of St John's Smith Square, 272 orchestras, 319–21
Orff, Carl, 30–1, 248, 251
ownership/copyright issues, 156–7, 159, 292

parents, 171
Paynter, John, 31, 32–3, 34, 149, 247
Percussion Band Association, 240, 241, 242–3 percussion bands, 242–3
performance, 126–7; orchestral, 319–21; perfection and, 126 performance practice, choral conductors and, 303–4, 307, 308 performance studies, 126–7
Personal Construct Psychology, 38, 40 personality and choral conducting, 312
Pfaff, Philip, 240
philosophy/philosophies, 25–35, 216, 245–51; National Curriculum and, 263 physical exercises for singers, 313 physical training, 9, 10; see also technique piano teaching/learning, 5–22; fingering systems, 10–19, 20, 21–2 Pipers' Guild, 241, 242, 243, 244 pitching, 220; see also intonation planning, in collaborative projects, 47, 277, 283–5 play, 135, 245; see also games Plowden Report, 243, 247, 248 popular music: effects on music education, 236; Ghanaian styles, 203–4; Nigerian styles, 182–9 primary schools, non-specialists teaching music in, 191–200; and collaborative projects, 276, 277–85; and INSET, in Botswana, 192–200; resources for, 221–5 professional musicians: collaborative projects with schools, 47, 271–85; defining, 184; training, in Nigeria, 184; working with amateurs, 218–19 psychoacoustics, 129–30

puberty and vocal development, 101–16, 220

radio, 188, 193, 251
Rainbow, Bernarr, 30, 251, 252n
Read, Ernest, 241–2
reconstructionism, 214, 215
Recorder Society, 241
relevance, 236, 237
religion, 157–8, 182–3, 206
Rennoldson, Reginald, 242, 244 repertoire: choral, 100–1, 313–14; cultural issues, 101; National Curriculum and, 100–1; orchestral, 321
repertory grids, 39–40 resources: on African music, 211–13; in Ghana, 202; relating to jazz, 225–7; relating to National Curriculum, 221–5, 323–4; for teaching composition, 295, 299–301 rhythm, perception of, samba project and, 289–90 ritual, 202, 204, 205, 207
rock music, 261, 262
Rockshop, 259, 261
role models, 39–47, 65–6, 122, 207
Rose, Jim, 318–19
Ross, Malcolm, 122–4, 236

samba, 287–94
SAMES (Southern African Music Educators' Society), 149, 150, 152
sansa, see mbira
scales, function of practising, 6
SCARLATTI (Strathclyde Consortium for Action Research in Learning Approaches and Teaching Techniques in Inventing), 295, 299–301
Schafer, Murray, 31, 32, 33–4, 126
Scholes, P. A., 30, 31
school subjects: arts subjects, 122–4, 318–19; popularity rating, 258, 259–60
Schumann, Clara, 7, 9
science, 125–6
Scotland, 263, 295–301
Scruton, Roger, 216–18
Sebba, Jane, 221, 223
sex: gender and, 52; see also gender issues Sharma, Elizabeth, 322–3
sight-reading, piano, fingering rules and, 22
singing, 219–21, 321–2; choral conducting and, 305–6, 310, 311, 313–14; development of, 147, 313–14; falsetto, 106, 107, 220; gender and attitudes to, 57–9; and holistic approach to music in schools, 77–8; MEUT and, 249–50, 251; National Curriculum and, 99–102, 109, 115–16, 220; social issues, 101, 220; transcription of, 140–1 singing games: movement in, 142, 147n; study of language and singing in, 139–47
Skett, Gwendoline, 240
Small, Christopher, 152
SMF (Standard Midi Files), 225, 226
social issues, 101, 220; see also cultural issues socialisation, music and, 153
sound therapy, 236–7 Soundbeam, 236–7
soundscape, 33, 34, 125, 146
South Africa, 149–53, 237; ISME conference in, 235–8; National Music Educators' Conferences, 149–50
special needs, 236–7
spiritual development, 246
sport, 9–10, 269
Standard Grade music, 295, 297–9
standards: and access issues, 74–5, 80, 81; amateur, 261
steel band music, 323
Stockhausen, Karlheinz, 125
Stone, Ruth M., 211–13
Strathclyde, see SCARLATTI
Stravinsky, Igor, 94
string playing, 129–30, 320
subsidies for amateur music, 219, 261
supervisory knowledge, 308

Tanzania, 157–8, 159
teacher education, 220, 260; in Ghana, 202, 205, 208; and MEUT, 244, 251; samba project in, 287–94; and teaching of composition, 297, 298–9; in Zimbabwe, 172–9 teachers: beliefs, 53–68; essential attributes, views of, 28; non-specialist, views of INSET needs, 192–200; own involvement in musical activities, 194, 199; as role models, 41, 45–6, 65 technical exercises, effects on learners, 269 technique: automatisation, 10; conducting, 304–7, 312–13; methods of developing, 5–22, 269; of orchestral instruments, 320–1; see also singing technology, 244; gender issues concerning, 64–5, 68; in Ghana, 203, 204–5, 206, 207–8; interactive, 225, 226; in Nigeria, 186–7 television, 188, 248

tempo, 306–7
terminology, 152, 162
theory, understanding of, and practical competence, 266 therapy, 236–7
thumb piano, see mbira
Time and Tune, 248
Tobin, Candida, 251 traditional music: change in, 158, 178; in education in Zimbabwe, 171–9; in Ghana, 204; and means of learning, 267; popular music based on, in Nigeria, 183, 189; see also world music(s)
transcription, 140–1; see also aural skills Trinidad, 323

ubuntu, 235, 236
universities, music in, 186, 309–10
University of London, and MEUT, 241
USA, multiculturalism in, 213–16

values, 152
violin playing, 129–30
visiting musicians, 47, 271–85
voice, development of, 99, 101–16, 220; language and, 139–41, 143–7; see also singing
Volk, Terese M., 213–16

Wales, 71; study of holistic approach in, 76–81
warm-ups, 220, 313
Welton, Leonard, 242
Welton, Leslie, 240
Werkenthin, Albert, 17–19, 22
Williams, Joseph (publishers), 240, 242
wind instruments, 320–1
Winn, C., 30
Winters, Geoffrey, 244, 250–1
Wishart, Bobby, 300
Witkin, Robert, 256–8, 260
world music(s), 164–6, 322–4; attitudes to, 54; in education, 166–9; see also African music, cultural issues and traditional music writing, models for, 318

xylophone, 205, 206

Yamaha-Kemble, 271
Yorke Trotter, Thomas H., 25, 26–32, 33, 34–5

Zimbabwe, 171–9